FARMER DATA AND PARTICIPATION CONSENT

Please read this agreement, or ask someone you trust to explain it to you, before you decide.

1. Information collected

I understand that my cooperative and CollabFarm Finance may collect and use my name, contact details, date of birth, National Identification Number (NIN), identity document or photo, membership and farming information, and bank details.

2. Why it is used

This information is used to register and verify me, manage my cooperative membership, prepare and administer project participation and agreements, keep required records, and arrange payments where applicable.

3. Who may receive information

My cooperative, authorised CollabFarm Finance staff and reviewers, and service providers helping with identity checks or payments may receive information needed for their work. Investors may see limited project and general farm information. They will not see my NIN, phone number, exact address, or bank details.

4. My choices and privacy rights

I am choosing to agree freely. I may withdraw my consent or ask to access or correct my information by contacting my cooperative or CollabFarm Finance through the platform privacy contact channels. Withdrawal does not undo processing already carried out and may affect registration, project participation, or payment where the information is needed. I may also raise a privacy concern with the Nigeria Data Protection Commission.

My information will be handled under the platform privacy policy and applicable requirements. Consent does not guarantee project funding, profit, or returns.

5. My agreement

I have read this agreement or had it explained in a language I understand. I had a chance to ask questions. I understand what information is used, why it is used, and who may receive it. I agree to the uses described above.
